DREXEL BOURSE INITIATES NEW GROUP OF MEN

Mr. Wagenseller Administers Oath; Formal Banquet Great Success

Mr. McALPIN SPEAKER

The Drexel Bourse formally initiated the new members, twelve in number, at a formal banquet held in the Tea Rose on Monday evening, November 9.

Mr. John A. McAlpin, Jr., a C. P. A., and a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania graduate school, was the guest speaker.

Following a delightful dinner, President MacIver opened the meeting and Mr. Wagenseller, honorary chairman of the Bourse, administered the oath to the new members. The men entering the society were L. Rubin, A. Whiteraft, J. Bergstresser, E. Fields, T. Fisher, H. Josephsberg, J. Montgomery, R. Mulford, J. O'Brien, G. Paulding, J. Prentzel, and R. Riddle.

Immediately after the initiation, Mr. Kashenbach, honorary vice-chairman, addressed the men and pledged his heartiest support to the upbuilding of the organization.

The meeting was then turned over to Mr. Longnecker, a senior member of the society, through whose efforts the guest speaker was obtained. Mr. McAlpin was well received by the

SENIOR REVUE TO BE NOVEL EVENT

Skits, Music and Dances to Feature Presentation Of Men of '32

The Senior Revue is beginning to take definite form and promises to be a great hit. It is not only novel in that it is the first real revue that Drexel has ever had, but that most of the music will be original, being written by "Terry" Riggins, a senior civil engineer. These tunes vary from the hot catchy type to several dreamy waltz numbers, both having songs which are certain hits. And last, but far from least, there will be a new school song introduced in the finale, entitled "The Dragons Command," which will no doubt become a school tradition.

The show is to be divided into two acts. The first will be a program of skits, music and dances. These skits have all been modeled after Broadway productions, in fact several of them have been considered as hits by the sophisticated New York theatre-goer. Some of the personalities appearing in this act are: Z. Dieter, who is directing a skit in which his beautiful "daughter," Fred Crosset, has wandered from the safety of the straight and narrow path of farm life into the terrors of the big city. It is a pathetic scene with a great big laugh. Then there is "Russ" Nixon taking the lead in a sure-fire comedy drama that will completely occupy your attention; also "Bill" Bishop as the handsome radio announcer, whose wise-cracks will never be heard over any radio. Before we finish our description of this act, we must pay particular attention to the trio, composed of

ST. JOE RALLY TONIGHT; PARADE WILL FOLLOW

Tonight at Drexel Field, stamping ground of the Drexel Dragon, the greatest football rally in the history of the college will be held. That's saying a lot, after the ovation given by the student body to the team and Coach Halas last Monday.

The boys who stopped the powerful Ursinus team, and who so far this season have won five consecutive games, will be on hand as well as Coach Halas and his assistants. The band will furnish the music for Drexel's snappy fight songs and the Dragon cheerleaders, headed by "Chuck" Quillen, will do their stuff. Don't forget the time! The big rally starts at 7.30. Beat St. Joe!

Montgomery and Wentzel are Drexel's Representatives At the Convention

Fifty delegates, representing many of the leading colleges of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, Maryland, District of Columbia, and Delaware, attended the opening of the Interecollegiate Newspaper Association Convention at Dickinson College last Friday. The TRIANGLE'S representatives to the meeting were John R. Montgomery, editor-in-chief, and Cleon H. Wentzel, business manager. Both men took an active part in the sessions of the convention. Mr. Montgomery delivering a speech upon "Improving the College Publication" at the editorial staff session Friday evening, and Mr. Wentzel acted in his capacity of chairman on the Constitutional Committee.

Raymond Counsellor, president of the Association, opened the convention, and was followed by Esther Chambers, editor-in-chief of the "Dickinsonian," who welcomed the delegates to Carlisle. Winfield Cook, secretary of the I. N. A., proceeded with the usual reports.

The main speaker was Morton Rutsky, of the Collegiate Special Advertising Agency, who delivered an interesting talk on problems confronting the business managers of the modern college publications, as well as his own problems in his advertising agency.

Friday night's session was held in Old West on the campus, featuring talks by two old-timers of the news-

FINAL NOTICE

"LEXERD"

To all Seniors, Fraternity men, Sorority women, and members of honorary organizations—please have your individual photographs taken, for the 1932 "Lexerd," by Nov. 20, 1931, if you wish them to appear in the 1932 "Lexerd."

No appointment is necessary; any day from 9.30 to 4.30 will do. Price is $1 for a new photograph and fifty cents extra for every additional photograph which appears in the "Lexerd." That is, if one is a member of the Senior class and a fraternity he will pay $1.50 for two appearances in the "Lexerd."

All fraternity photos will be informal. All photos for honorary organizations will be formal.

Please co-operate with us and have your photograph taken right away. Thank you.

J. P. Ryder Memorial Clock is New Addition to Arch of Great Court

The J. Peterson Ryder Memorial Clock has finally been installed at the entrance arch of the great court. The funds for the purchase of the clock were bequeathed to Drexel by the late J. Peterson Ryder.

The clock was designed by Mr. Simons, of the architectural firm of Simons & Simons, and was constructed by the Standard Electric Time Company of this city.

The weight of the large timepiece, including the ornamental bronze casing, is about 300 pounds. The clock is of the "minute jump" type; that is, the minute hand does not move uniformly, but jumps from one minute graduation to the next. The clock is electric, operating on the regular D. C. circuit of the school.

The reason for the long delay in installing the clock was the fact that the first model presented was not approved.

The position and large size of the clock makes it easier to see than the George W. Childs Memorial Clock, which has a small face visible only at close range. Suggestions have been made that the dial of the new clock be illuminated so as to increase its visibility from all points in the Court.

Mr. Ryder, or "Petey" as he was affectionately known to his many friends of the student body, was an apostle of punctuality and he believed that the habit of punctuality was one of the best a student could develop. Accordingly, the words "Be On Time" are inscribed on the casing of the clock, and above it is the inscription "J. Peterson Ryder Memorial Clock."

In tribute to our beloved "Petey" let us all try to "be on time."

DEAN DISQUE PRESENTS NEW ARTICLE ON RUSSIA

Compares Soviet System With That of the American

Dean Disque has written an interesting discussion on "Engineering Education in Russia," published in the current McGraw-Hill Book Notes. The article sets forth the main features of the present Russian plan for technical education, as described by Professor Serge P. Tamboretz, followed by a comparison of American and Russian methods.

Under the Russian system, the technical education is placed in the hands of the various industries. Since the industries are state controlled, they have the double duty of production and education.

Specialization begins at the age of eight, when the pupils are directed toward work in the industries for a period of seven years. At the age of fifteen the students enter three-

MISS DORSEY ATTENDS CONFERENCE OF DEANS

Last Friday and Saturday, Miss Dorsey attended the annual conference of the Pennsylvania Association of Deans of Women at the Penn-Harris Hotel in Harrisburg.

The chief speaker was Doctor Apple, of Philadelphia. A talk was given by Dr. Boyd Edwards, who spoke on "What is Religion?", giving the interpretation in the eyes of modern youth. Dr. Martha Graey, Dean of the Women's Medical College of Pennsylvania, also addressed the conference.

Miss Dorsey is a member of the Executive Committee which formulated the year's program. She is also working in conjunction with a special research committee for the year.

LA BOVE AND KNAPP SCORE

Down from the hills of Pennsylvania rambled the Ursinus Bear—a conqueror seeking more conquests undefeated in its season campaign. Then back to its lair in Collegeville shambled the grizzly, humbled bear beaten decisively by the Drexel Dragon in a brilliant closing rally, but only after the bitterest of clashes witnessed on Drexel Field.

That 12-7 triumph last Saturday afternoon marked the sixth victory and the fifth in succession this year for Coach Halas's proteges. It also carried the unofficial championship of the minor colleges in the East, a distinction never achieved before by the Dragons. But even more significant than the victory was the way in which it was accomplished and the team's response to a splendid exhibition of school spirit.

When in the last part of the game, with the Dragon holding short end of a 7-6 count, Mike LaBove was forced out of action by an injury, leaving the Drexel eleven leaderless, it was a blow felt by many staunch supporters in the capacity crowd. But just when the game began to take on a dark blue aspect for the Dragon followers, things suddenly began to happen. There have been few exhibitions more courageous than the uphill battle displayed by the small band of Dragons.

DRAGONS BATTLE HAWKS TOMORROW

Drexel Seeks Second Consecutive Win Over St. Joe

Tomorrow the Dragon and the Hawk meet in the ninth annual battle between the Gold and Blue and the Crimson and Grey. This series started back in 1923 and for six straight years fighting Drexel eleven were downed by the St. Joe footballers. St. Joe came to be known as Drexel's jinx. Season after season the Dragons would prime for the battle with the Hawks only to lose out. A halt was called in 1929, when a smooth functioning eleven coached by Walter Halas and captained by Leo Redmond held the Crimson and Grey to a 0-0 stalemate. Last year on Drexel Field the Gold and Blue came into its own and downed the Hawks by an 18-6 score.

But this year, with the best eleven Drexel has ever had, the

TALK TO BE DELIVERED TO FORUM ON TUESDAY

The program of the Social Science Forum announced for Friday evening, October 30th, will be conducted Tuesday evening, November 17th, in the Art Gallery at 8 o'clock. Miss Clarette Schon, Executive Secretary of the Training School at Vineland, New Jersey, will at that time address the students and their friends on the subject, "The Feeble-Minded: Who Are They and Where Are They?" This forum is open to the public. Students and their friends are invited to participate in the closing discussion.

ANNUAL CONVENTION OF CATHOLIC CLUBS HERE

The Middle Atlantic Province of College Catholic Clubs, of which the Drexel Newman Club is a member, will hold their annual convention in this city on November 20, 21, and 22, with Temple University acting as host.

On Friday, November 20, a formal reception and dance will be held in the grand ballroom of the new Mitten Hall at Temple.

On Saturday, November 21, the delegates will hold the business meeting of the convention. On Saturday afternoon a Tea Dance will be held.

The convention will close with all the delegates and members of the local clubs going to ten o'clock mass and receiving communion at the Cathedral, from where all will be transported to Mitten Hall in taxis free of charge, for the communion breakfast.

Rev. J. Fulton Sheen, of Catholic University, Washington, D. C., and H. Eugene Heine, Esq., Assistant City Solicitor of Philadelphia, will be speakers at the breakfast.

THESPIANS NAME DR. HANSON, SEC'Y

Has Proved Ability Through Long Experience in Dramatic Work

Dr. R. S. Hanson, a member of the Chemistry Department and faculty advisor of the Dramatic Club, has been recently elected secretary of the Pennsylvania Interecollegiate Dramatic Alliance.

This Alliance was organized last year, and is composed of the various dramatic organizations in the Philadelphia district. The colleges represented in the organization are: Drexel Institute, by the Rouge and Robe Society; the University of Pennsylvania, by the Dramatic Club, the Philomathian Society, and the Zelosophic Society; Mount St. Joseph's College; Temple University; Muhlenberg College, and Bryn Mawr College.

The principal purpose of the Dramatic Alliance is to sponsor a contest annually among the colleges for the best production of a one-act play. This contest provides a fine spirit among the various societies. Last year, Drexel did not enter, but this season the Rouge and Robe intends to present a play.

Dr. Hanson is very well suited for his office, since he has had a great deal of experience in coaching and presenting plays while he was at Ohio State University. He has given much of his time in coaching various plays at Drexel.

VICTORY DANCE TO BE GIVEN IN COURT

Annual Varsity Club Affair To Present Novelties

The Court is set for the big Victory Dance (?) tomorrow night. The team will be there. The coaches will be there. Will you and, of course, your girl, be there?

What do you say? Let's all be here to celebrate and meet the Dragons personally. You like to dance, so let's go. "Benny" Pritchard's Blue Dragons will be playing their old hearts out for joy (!). They will even dress in football jerseys for your pleasure. Dance between goal posts in the Court. If you get bored—well, there's the lounge and "the pause that refreshes"—in the grill. And, girls!! If victorious, the Dragons will give as a favor One Football, honest, autographed by the coaches and every member of the squad. Come on out!

Did the Dragon skin the Bear—Boy!! And how he skun him—fur, claws, and all!!! Two darn good teams; 8,000 frenzied fans yelling like fools; ideal football weather; there's the picture—WHAM!!!! Down went the Eastern Conference Champs!! We congratulate you, Dragons, collectively and individually. The old pep and spirit was in there strong all of the time. To pull a game against a team of Ursinus' class out of the fire in the last eight minutes to play and hold it above the hot coals against such a well developed aerial attack as the Bears' is no cinch. You did it in A+ style, justifying the confidence placed in you by an excellent coaching staff.—And fans, with the exception of Walt MacFadyen in there at guard, you saw the varsity of 1932 score the second touchdown. It must make a captain feel darn proud of his team when, after he has played himself out, they can come through and win over one of the championship college elevens of the East. It would be hard to pick the stars of that game without mentioning every player. However, we want to congratulate "Murph" Burns, our quarter. He put on a smooth exhibition of football generalship, playing like a seasoned veteran and one of the few men to stay the full sixty minutes of play. Ed Marsh, too, deserves special recognition. How that man can play such a stellar game in the line and still get off consistently the beautiful punts he does is pretty hard to tell. That's just Ed's way of doing things, that's all. The fellow that was probably more directly responsible for that first score than any other player will not be in there against St. Joe tomorrow. His name is Schoeller; he's a freshman and a classy halfback. Let's give him a big hand!! He earned it!!

Wham!!! Last Saturday morning our co-ed hockiests took it on the nose 6 to 2 against the Saturday Morning Club. Wham!! Monday afternoon, they came right back and floored Rosemont College 5 to 1, making up for a 3 to 2 defeat sustained earlier in the season. The lack of spirit and co-operation on the part of the student body has had a great deal to do with our scores thus far this season. On last Saturday morning the girls played before an amazingly large crowd of five spectators. They held the small end of a 6 to 2 score. Monday afternoon they were ably supported by a cheering section some fifty or sixty strong and came out on top 5 to 1. "Ginny" Douglass starred for the Dragonettes, scoring three of the five goals, while "Pat" Chambers and "Peg" Duross garnered the other two. This combination of "Ginny" and "Pat" has been clicking all season. Let's give them a boost!!!

Penn Hall appears on our home lot this Monday. They boast a very classy outfit, and the stage is set for a fast and peppy afternoon. On Wednesday the co-ed Bears of Ursinus invade the Dragon's territory to avenge the defeat sustained last Saturday by their toled mole-skinners. Let's be out there cheering, fans!!! You saw how much it helped at Rosemont. Let's keep it up!!!

Good-bye, Bears! Hello, St. Joe!!! TONIGHT!!—7.15—the PEP RALLY—TOMORROW—2.00 P. M.—THE VICTORY??—TOMORROW—8.45-12.00 P. M.—THE VARSITY DANCE—IN THE COURT—WHAT DO YOU SAY??? ALL OUT!!!!!!

The news contest cup was awarded to the "Pitt Weekly," of the University of Pittsburgh, a newcomer to the ranks of the I. N. A. and one that promises to be a worthwhile addition to the Association. The "Brown and White," of Lehigh, and the "Student Weekly," of Franklin and Marshall College, took second and third places, respectively, with honorable mention going to the "Bucknellian," of Bucknell University.

In the editorial contest, Lehigh's "Brown and White" was adjudged the best and received the handsome trophy. The "Pitt Weekly" and "Bucknellian" followed in that order, honorable mention going to the "Juniatian," of Juniata College.

year schools, where they either aim for an engineer or a skilled workman education. Following this period, the students who are chosen for an engineering training continue their work and finally may become teachers or research engineers.

Under this system the obligations of the student are very definite. His studies and progress are not his private affairs, but his duty in the campaign of the Soviet State. Dean Disque's opinion is summarized in the statement: "To assume that the individual is made for the state is to reverse what seems to us to be the proper relation." Research work and education is not fostered by a strictly centralized system such as Russia is attempting. Of course the case of engineering education rests with the rest of the Russian plan and will stand or fall with it.

FUMBLES

By J. J. PRENTZEL, JR.

Ursinus Bear and Drexel Dragon. Oohwah, the referee must be a lion tamer or else fast, very fast, on his feet. It's a good thing he isn't a junior. About the only thing those boys are fast on is to the ropes.

To Bill Kyle and Bud Pauling should go the credit for Junior Week. It was their idea and work that put it over. We humbly suggest that all goose-eggs given by profs to juniors during the week also be credited to Bill and Bud. Pass the olives.

Kick-off! Murph returned it with his best foot forward—both of them. This Bear may be tough, but it's rubbery, it's given for three first downs in a row.

An Ursinus back, chortling, "You Were Meant for Me," just muscled a Knapp pass from Hoff and tripped blithely on his way for a few yards, a few too many.

It's a good thing that pig is a dead one. The "Chicken" just applied the rule of toe method to it for eighty yards. That's a long way for one boot, even as the crow flies.

Dependable Al Ecklemeyer, whom we haven't seen make a poor pass all season, just met up with a forward going the wrong direction, reversed its field, and kindly helped it on its way.

How that gang is fighting. The Dragon line is making sure whatever goes up comes down, and comes down hard. Wirth, Markle, MacFayden, Keller, et al., are digging just a little deeper and giving till it "hoits." Yea, Hoibie.

We don't know why Schoeller saved those yards, but we sure are glad he saved them till now. "Flash" Potter is riding in high, too—playing a fighting all-around game. And over with Mike in three mighty plunges and the Ursinus line just took, took, and took.

This boy "Hi" Miller makes a great all-around backfield. His punts aren't so good, but four Dragon linemen on your neck does hamper your foot, strange as it may seem.

Speaking of punting, there's one of Marsh's that wasn't. The whole Bear forward wall caved in on it fondly. All even on Soeder's pass to Miller down in the coffin corner. Soeder's place kick wasn't a bit conducive to Dragon joy. The whistle.

In skipping through the "News" we perceive MacFayden, senior class president and Tau Beta Pi, standing peacefully on his head. Walter, your dignity.

Some students show great promise as broken-field runners, the way they pick holes between Varsity vendors of the Football News in the Court. The only trouble is they run with their heads down—but then so did Silas Marner.

Off again. Drexel's back isn't being pushed against the wall, but somehow the wall is chiseling up on Drexel's back.

Thanks, pal. The referee just caught an Ursinus man holding—15 yards. Too bad; too bad that the Bear didn't wring somebody's neck—we might have gotten a touchdown.

Mike is making every other tackle and in between, for variety's sake, LaBove makes a tackle.

This is no place to pick daisies. About the only thing barred is biting in the clinches, and we have our suspicions about that. At first both sides buried their own dead, but now they just slap a use-no-hooks sign on the body and roll it to the sidelines.

Burns and Gabriel are clipping them off at the ankles, which has an interesting effect on the velocity of a falling body. Gabe and Moiph are fighting hard, running hard and hitting hard, and the Bears are now convinced that hard times are here.

Hoff spread-angled a Bear fumble. Business is picking up. Hoff again, right where Knapp wanted him to be, and the goal line heaves ho. Local boy in the person of "Kid" Knapp makes good. He scored on a perfect swan dive.

'Sfunny how "Rough-on-Bears" Burns forgets signals at the most opportune times. If he can forget them a bit longer, the game will be over. Meanwhile "Soek" Donnelly is enjoying himself in the Bear market—yeow, thanks gang for the scrapple, you deserve turkey.

All juniors out for a snake dance—if it kills us, we'll die happy, anyway. BEAT ST. JOE'S, no school Monday-Friday (including the Scandinavian).

A formula to end "Mother Hubbard buying"

Bare "cupboards" or overstocked ones — are costly in any industry. In the Bell System a safe margin of telephone supplies must always be on hand to assure continuous, efficient service.

Telephone men attacked this problem of distribution in a scientific spirit — studied every angle of purchasing, shipping, warehousing, costs, methods. There emerged a mathematical formula. From this, tables have been developed showing just how much of any item should be stocked to meet requirements most economically. Result: investment in stock is kept low — turnover is speeded-up — 99.25% of orders are filled without delay!

The working out of this formula is typical of the thought Bell System men give to improving the telephone art in all its phases.

WINNING STREAK

Drexel got possession of the ball on their own 30-yard line late in the fourth quarter after the tide had sea-sawed back and forth with neither team able to make any concerted attack. On the first play Burns reeled off fifteen yards after grabbing a pass from Marsh.

Potter added another first down, and Donnelly, who had replaced LaBove, knifed through center for another substantial gain—a pass to Burns netted twenty yards, another aerial, Knapp to Hoff, placed the ball on Ursinus' 10-yard stripe. Knapp then sliced off tackle for four yards, Potter and Donnelly together carried the ball to within a yard of the line. It was fourth down and Drexel's one chance to win, and Knapp proved equal to the test when he hurled himself over the goal for the touchdown and victory, culminating an 80-yard drive.

The previous scoring was lacking not a bit of the spectacular. After a scoreless first quarter Eddie Marsh bested the Ursinus punter in a kicking duel, working the ball up to the middle of the field, from which point Burns started his first offensive. Knapp, LaBove, and Donnelly had weakened the opposing line with their hard thrusts, and at this stage Coach Halas sent in his speed merchants, Schoeller and Potter.

ROSEMONT BEATEN BY DRAGONETTES

Show Great Team Work As They Win to Tune of 5-1

The girls' hockey team traveled out to Rosemont to show off some beautiful hockey and come through with the better end of a 5-1 score on Monday afternoon, November 9. The weather was perfect and the girls made a most attractive picture in their blue and gray tunics.

The game started at a furious pace. Chambers, playing center forward, got the bully and the Drexel team took the ball deep into the enemy's territory, only to be driven back by that fighting Rosemont backfield when within a few feet of the goal. However, our girls soon got possession of the ball and in the first few minutes of play Douglass took the first point of the game by shooting a beautiful goal. During the remainder of the half, Douglass succeeded in making two more goals, while Chambers took one and set the score at 4-0, end of the first half.

The second half opened with Rosemont fighting furiously. DuRoss, replacing Wright as right inner, shattered whatever ideas they may have had by almost immediately taking the ball down the field for Drexel's fifth goal of the day. The Rosemont lassies were desperate, and until the end of the game the ball flew undecidedly from one end of the field to the other. Rosemont finally succeeded in sending it into their goal for their first and only point in the game.

Coach Henwood's Dragonettes showed marvelous team work. Their passing and stick work were done beautifully. Grand,—Leonard, Conkle, Bassett, and Capt. Weisgerber defended the back field, while Kennedy, as goaler, stopped anything that came her way. Muth and Wright did beautiful work on the line. Rosemont team put up a wonderful fight, much harder than the score would indicate.

Tomorrow morning the hockey team departs on tour for New York. They will be quartered at the Martha Washington Hotel Saturday night and will return to Drexel late Sunday night in order to play Penn Hall Monday afternoon. While away they meet the Carroll Club of New York on the club's home field at Prospect Park, Brookline. The girls will be handicapped, since the Carrolls harbor three All New York City Stars in their first string lineup. We wish the team success. They have the pep, spirit, and ability; let's hope they get the breaks!

The latter cut around end for twelve yards. Schoeller duplicated the feat around the opposite side, LaBove contributed a first down, placing the ball on the 14-yard line. Schoeller on another sweeping play added eight yards and LaBove crashed through center for the first touchdown of the game.

He failed to register the second point when the Ursinus line stopped him before he could reach the goal. This margin looked big to Drexel fans until near the close of the half, when Ursinus opened up with an aerial offensive which proved strong enough to even the score at 6 all, and then forge ahead after a successful attempt for the extra point by placement.

This left the visiting team with a one-point margin at half time, and how the Drexel eleven came back with a rush in the final period to win is a matter of record.

To single out any individual star on the Drexel eleven would be an impossible task. Each and every player who participated in the contest deserves credit.

Marsh's punting and defensive play was brilliant. Burns' generalship was constantly good, but the men and his address was sincerely appreciated.

His advice on how the men should conduct themselves when they finished college and entered into the business world was well chosen and especially well presented.

Since his life's work is in accounting and administering advice to his clients, Mr. McAlpin was most capable in presenting his views to the society. "Accounting can make a business; lack of accounting can ruin a strong business and cause it to get bankrupt."

Mr. McAlpin closed his address, relating a few most interesting experiences he has had in his accounting work in the outside world. The meeting was closed by President MacIver and immediately following the adjournment a picture was taken by the TRIANGLE cameraman and is presented here for your approval.

work of the fast charging forwards and the hard running backs made his work comparatively easy. The line splitting tactics of LaBove and Donnelly made it possible for Gabriel, Potter, Knapp and Schoeller to perform creditably. Ted Markle turned in one of his stellar games, as did Hoff, Eeklemeyer, Keller, Wright, Lukens, Wirth, and Brevda.

"Walt" Reyney, "Terry" Riggin and "Mike" LaBove, singing and acting original numbers.

The second act will take you to a scene of exotic beauty, a cabaret on the stage. A cabaret of the type that you have dreamed of, gorgeous costumes, novel lighting, a really exotic decorating and color scheme, enhanced by the dancing and singing chorus.

FRESH

in nature's way

CAMELS are never parched or toasted!

FRESHNESS and flavor in a cigarette trace right back to natural moisture.

If you overheat or process tobacco so harshly as to dry out all natural moisture you drive out freshness and flavor too.

Camel never parches or toasts the fine Turkish and mild Domestic tobaccos it uses—they are naturally smooth, cool, mellow, with natural moisture retained.

That's why the Camel Humidor Pack proves such a blessing to Camel smokers—it brings them a fine cigarette fresh to start with, and fresh to smoke.

If you don't realize what natural moisture means in genuine freshness and flavor, switch to Camels and see.

Try this mild, slow-burning, throat-friendly favorite for just one day—then leave it, if you can!

CAMELS

Made FRESH - Kept FRESH

● Don't remove the moisture-proof wrapping from your package of Camels after you open it. The Camel Humidor Pack is protection against sweat, dust and germs. In offices and homes, even in the dry atmosphere of artificial heat, the Camel Humidor Pack delivers fresh Camels and keeps them right until the last one has been smoked

ALUMNI NEWS

A meeting of the Drexel Institute Alumnae Club was held on October 27th at the home of Miss Lillian Hines in order to discuss the question of the annual bridge party. This party has been given each year to help the Alumnae Club Scholarship Fund, but it was decided that because of business conditions we would not hold this party at this time. Instead, we hope to make up our fund from donations and commissions on Christmas cards, magazines and stationery. So as Alumni, before you order your Christmas cards, stop at Drexel Institute and see our wide variety. Give your friends a most acceptable and individual of all Christmas gifts, boxes of embossed personal stationery. Or perhaps a magazine might solve your Christmas problem. And thus your Christmas shopping would help a worthwhile student at Drexel Institute.

'05 Edna V. Hill, of 4517 Osage Avenue, Philadelphia, is very busy teaching Home Economics at the West Philadelphia High School.

'15 Mrs. J. A. Grady, nee Mary Bernidine Lyon, writes that she has her hands quite full taking care of her three children, and that she is living at 304 Bryant Avenue, Oaklyn, N. J. DRAGONS BATTLE HAWKS TOMORROW

Dragons are set to defeat St. Joe for the second time. St. Joe, while they have not yet won a game this season and while they have only scored a single touchdown, this against Lebanon Valley last Saturday, are no pushovers, and for the past two weeks Coach Emid Thomas has been priming the Hawks for the Drexel battle, and tomorrow two fighting elevens will take the field at the St. Joe stadium at 54th and City Line. The previous scores in this series are as follows:

- 1923—Drexel, 0; St. Joseph's, 6
- 1924—Drexel, 0; St. Joseph's, 13
- 1925—Drexel, 3; St. Joseph's, 13
- 1926—Drexel, 0; St. Joseph's, 7
- 1927—Drexel, 0; St. Joseph's, 6
- 1928—Drexel, 0; St. Joseph's, 12
- 1928—Drexel, 0; St. Joseph's, 0
- 1930—Drexel, 18; St. Joseph's, 6

Last season was the first time that the Dragons scored a touchdown against the Hawks, but on the other hand, in that same game, the Dragons scored more points than St. Joe did in any one game against the Gold and Blue. Everyone of these games was a hard-fought battle and tomorrow's fray will be no exception.

"I insist on Lucky Strike"

"There's nothing like a microphone to show up the voice in its true colors. So I insist on Lucky Strike—the cigarette that I know will be kind to my throat. And you've certainly scored another hit with your new style Cellophane wrapper that opens so easily."

Sally Eilers

Sally Eilers will always call this her big year. First, she learned to fly a plane. Then she married and found domestic bliss. Then she made a smashing success in "Bad Girl." As a reward Fox is co-starring her in "Over the Hill."

Made of the finest tobaccos—The Cream of many Crops—LUCKY STRIKE alone offers the throat protection of the exclusive "TOASTING" Process which includes the use of modern Ultra Violet Rays—the process that expels certain harsh, biting irritants naturally present in every tobacco leaf. These expelled irritants are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE. "They're out—so they can't be in!" No wonder LUCKIES are always kind to your throat.

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough

And Moisture-Proof Cellophane Keeps that "Toasted" Flavor Ever Fresh

TUNE IN—The Lucky Strike Dance Hour, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening over N.B.C. networks.

* Is Miss Eilers' Statement Paid For?

You may be interested in knowing that not one cent was paid to Miss Eilers to make the above statement. Miss Eilers has been a smoker of LUCKY STRIKE cigarettes for 2½ years. We hope the publicity herewith given will be as beneficial to her and to Fox, her producers, as her endorsement of LUCKIES is to you and to us.
