Greeks Bid 108 As Rushing Ends

Fraternities Vie For Pledges with Dances, Smokers

Get-acquainted Spirit Prevails in Annual Rushing Race: Pledging Prospects Look Bright as Bids Go Out

After two weeks of extensive rushing activities, the Drexel Interfraternity Council, in the form of the Drexel Interfraternity Council, has been held. The screening season began with the arrival of new members from the other fraternities, and culminated with horse dance events for the new members. This year's rush was successful and very enjoyable. According to reports, the majority of the candidates invited to join the various fraternities were accepted. The activities of the Drexel Interfraternity Council are well-known to be highly competitive, and the candidates are encouraged to join the best fraternities. The screening season continues until next year. The candidates' performances and conduct are carefully scrutinized, and the decisions of the Drexel Interfraternity Council are final. The candidates are expected to meet all requirements and expectations. If they do, they will be accepted into the respective fraternities.
Sororities

With the fraternity season practically over, sororities are now in the midst of organized rushing. The first formal rush of the season takes place tonight, and some of the sororities will follow in quick succession. And then, silence period reigns, during which the eligible freshman women deliberate upon the question of becoming associated with a sorority. The same advice is given to each of these women was offered to the men last week in TRANGE, and is not necessary to be repeated.

Help is Needed

Residents of the flood-stricken areas of the Middle West are sans more, experiencing the horrors of nature gone mad. Refugees have deserted homesteads, leaving all worldly possessions to be swept away by turbulent waters. Destruction has come to hundreds of thousands of people, particularly enough, in the form of both fire and water. Cities such as Paducah, Evansville, Louisville, Wheeling, and Cincinnati have large sections condemned by the Red Cross. These people are in need of assistance; food, shelter, clothing, and medical attention are of great importance to them if they are to be assisted.

The Student Speaks

A year or so ago, the TRIANGLE regularly featured a feature captioned "The Student Speaks," which was an inescapable part of every issue. To express student opinion is a necessary function of a student newspaper. Evidently had found a letter written by a woman student in which she gives her opinion on the court session situation. One of the few letters received by the TRIANGLE this year, and the only one received this term. The letter is from a student who cannot be contented that he agrees with everyone else; and just as surely there must be some students who have good ideas about school and society, there are others who do not take opportunity to express themselves. For this reason, other editorials and opinions of student opinion is made by Miss Moore's letter.

Team Shoots High

The Drexel Institute of Technology R. O. T. P. rifle team shot high through the P. M. C. Francis gun last Saturday afternoon in the rifle range. Francis, who made a 1797 for the P. M. C. in 1923. Some have been shooting with Billy Breske and Captain Karl Wintermeyer, at Dakota, Nebraska, the German Army, which is their second victory of the current season. The American Rifle is following in the match. Three men are standing definitely in the shooting of his team and the live lists scores recorded by the Cadets, saw his efforts yield fruits, particularly in the shooting of his team and the live lists scores recorded by the Cadets.

Chi-Ki's Nose Out Mu's in Court Thriller

In one of the most thrilling battles that the Drexel Institute of Technology, the Phi K. B. and Mu's open the 1927 season against Tufts. The contest was close throughout, and in the open the first few minutes of the game that the hookeys from Phi K have their own big 17 to 21 lead. The contest was a result of a combination of shooting skills, which made up a team of Phi K. B. and Mu's.

Drexel also rates third in regard to the standings of the teams have changed since last week. The present All-America Board of Football Awards Pens was organized after the 1925 season. THE OBSERVER

THEATER

As the Editor says, "We must something to fill this hole which has been taken up by H. M. "It's up to us to fill the gap."

One of the items which is promised is a new article "Theatrical History." This will be followed by the "Theatrical News" in the near future.

Many of the students who read the theater section are impatiently waiting for this new article. They have been told that it will be written by Professor J. A. and will be published in the near future.

Our friends at school doing "Opera House" have not been able to help showing how this section is arranged. The editor has been working on this for some time and he hopes to have it ready soon.

We understand that the "Girls' Editor" is working on "Shakespearean" and that they are doing a better job this year. They have promised to do their best to make this section more interesting.

In this issue, the "Theatrical News" will be continued and will contain the latest information about current productions. The "Theatrical History" will also be included in this issue.

On Saturday, February 12th, when each house had a large open on all nights, popular orchestras and bands were scheduled for entertainment by Mr. Bown and by an orchestra from the university. The orchestra under the direction of Professor J. A. was particularly popular.

The clashes of the winter season came on in the midst of the competition. The Students' Union held a dance on February 1st, and each house had a different dance open to all students. Popular orchestras and bands were scheduled to entertain the students throughout the season. The unions under the direction of Professor J. A. were particularly popular.

You say MILDSMELL

Well, you get it in Chesterfields—refreshing mildness that's never flat.

You say GOOD TASTE

There's where you get it...in Chesterfields—and plentiful.

You say AROMA

Sure...the aroma of mild ripe tobacco...best of the homegrown types plus aromatic Turkish...makes Chesterfield an outstanding cigarette.

For the good things smoking can give you...

Enjoy Chesterfields
